

iView Developer – Adding a new protocol driver to the software

To add a new protocol driver to the iView Developer software, double click on the driver file and click on 'Extract' as below.

The protocol will be added to the software.

Note : Make sure the destination folder is the same as the iView Developer installation folder.